Wm. Hamilton Aug. 20, 1841.
Father Philip;

It was my wish to have a Talk with you before parting at the Camp Ground, but you left sooner than I anticipated.

My object now is to ~~write~~ lay my case before you, and then do what seems to you to be right.

One year ago I entered the Itinerant ranks, in good health and in debt for my horse. I traveled the year out received $33, and my expenses being about $80, this with my horse debt leaves me minus about $100, the question now was how shall I get out of debt and out to the west. I ~~do~~ ^{do} answer and one should say travel for $100 a year I would say that the contrary effect would be produced. My object is to go to the west as soon as circumstances will admit of it. I do not wish to leave the Itinerant ranks to effect this. It would be possible for you to keep me Some of my friends advise me to back again, I would but I fear the result.

It is no more than just for me to Justice to Cotton Circuit requires me to say that I could not have $63 instead of $13, but I could not conscientiously take it while others needed it more
